Tickets for our Christmas production of  are now on SALE!

Monday 13th December until Thursday 16th December. 7pm Start in the Main Hall.

Tickets are FREE but this year we are asking members of our audience to make an optional donation on the night of the performance. All funds raised will be used to help us purchase vital equipment for future productions.

Please use the link or the QR code to take you to our online booking system. Tickets will NOT be available on the night and MUST be purchased in advance. This is to ensure we are able to comply to all Covid rules. (As with all performances we would expect the audience to adhere to all coronavirus protocols including: being able to show a vaccine passport or a clear LFT test completed within 48hours of the event).

Your last chance to grab a ticket will be 24 hours before attending the performance of your choice.
